THE STEAMER SUPERIOR WRECKED-FIF-

TY LIVES LOST. The Superior Journal, of Marquette, Michigan, of Nov. 8th, publishes a long account of the loss of the steamer Superior:

Heretofore Lake Superior has been devoid of those dire calamities which have been the terror of the lower lakes, but we are at last called upon to record the loss of one of our noble steam-ers, together with her cargo and most of her passengers and crew. The steamer Superior left Saut ste Maria on Wednesday the 29th ult, and soon after entering the lake the wind com-menced blowing fresh from the northwest, raising a heavy sea. The boat was weathering the storm bravely and making for Grand Island. where she could lie in safety. She had nearly reached the Island when her rudder parted and she was left to the mercy of the waves. The engine was kept at work with the hope that she might make the lee of the Island and thus be saved. But she soon swung round into the trough of the sea, which rendered her still more unmanageable, and racked her timber so that she soon sprang aleak. The engines were still she soon sprang aleak. The engines were still kept at work until the water put the fires out.—In the meantime the boat drifted toward shore, and about three o'clock she struck on the main land a little east of Grand Island, of 'Pictured Rocks,' at the place known as the Big Cave.—When Mr. Dixon concluded his able and patriotic speech, three cheers were given for the anchors were thrown over some time before with the hope that they would touch bottom and hold her, but the water is very deep at this place, and they did not take hold until just before she struck, 'parted the sanchor chain and carried he further on the rock, the second sea swepther cabin off, and the third one dashed her to pleces. All this occupied less time than it takes to rease forth, and a more appropriate, patriotic and eloquent address we have not listened to for the efforts made by Capt. Jones to save the boot, and attribute her loss solely to the giving way of the rudder.

of the great validation of the high guestion of the great validation of sion, where they saluted that sterling patriot with three rounds from the booming thunderer low a condensed synopsis of his speech, as near as we could collect it.

Mr. Dixon commenced by saying: I thank you, my fellow-citizens, for this enthusiastic manifestation of your confidence in me, and although unexpected, I trust that it is not whelly unmerited. It is the more grateful, after all the abuse that has been lavished upon me by the American journals—and after all that has been said and done, to asperse my public character, to misrepresent my motives and to destroy whatever influence I may have had with my fellow-citizens, not only here, but throughout the entire State. For telling the people the truth a year ago, he had been denounced as a traitor, whilst those who had labored to deceive them, and who succeeded in the accomplishment of their unwholly purpose, were lauded as patriots. More than a year ago, he told the peo-ple, in a speech made by him at the Court-house in this city, that the American party in the free States had become almost entirely abelitionized ate with them-and that any candidate they might start for the Presidency, on a platform otecting the rights of the people of the South. would be unable to get the vote of a single free State He told them then, that the great contest was to be between the Black Republicans and Abonists on the one side, and the Democrats and Old Line National Whigs on the other. He told them then, that he intended to go with the national men of the country to save the countrythat the Democratic platform presented the only national grounds upon which he and those who entertained the same views of public policy with himself could stand; and that they would go with the Democratic party. For this, he was a betrayer of its principles and an enemy to the ountry. How far the results in the late election have proven the correctness of his predic tions or the justness of the charges made against From my boyhood up, said he, I have been taught to love and revere the Constitution of my citizens under it, and to be ready at all times to vindicate my own, as I would be to defend theirs. The constitution makes them so, and they must continue to be so until the constitution and the Union are destroyed. The federal rights of all the citizens of this great Republic are equal-none can claim any exclusive privileges over the others, and as far as the constitution extends, whether over the land or over the sea, whether over the States or over the Territories, these rights are the same. They cannot be lessened nor impaired by removing from one State to another, or from a State onstitution in the States, is not the less pro-Territories. So far from it Congress has no power to take even public use, the private propery of the citizen without making him just compensation for it. It cannot do so where the roperty is in the States, nor where it is in the Territorries. The exercise of such a power would be at war with the spirit of the constitution and a violation of the rights of the citizen. The Congressional Legislature of 1820, the Missouri Compromise, as it was called, did restrict the right of the citizens of all the slave States in the removal of their property to the Territory of Kansas and in the use of it when there, under the constitution of the United States upon terms of equality with the citizens of the free States. It, in effect; attempted to usurp the ights of the citizens of the Southern States, and o break down the guarantees of the constitution by which those rights were secured and protected. To remove this odious and unjust restriction, and to restore the people to their constitu-tional rights which had been wrested from them, he offered in the Senate of the United States, while the bill to organize the Territorial govern-ment of Nebraska was pending before that body, an amendment to the bill to strike the restric tion ferever from the statutes of the country. This amedment was adopted by the Senate, and the bill as amended was passed by the House and approved by the President. And for this, he and those with whom he acted had been held up to the country by political incendiaries and bigots by demagogues and traitors in all parts of the Union as agitators, disunionists and enemies to the Republic; as if he could be an enemy to the country, who labored to protect the constitution from violation and the rights of the citizen against usurpation and outrage. As soon as this foul blot was removed from the statute books of the country, a cry arose from the Black Republicans and Abolitionists, of "violated Compromises, sacred compacts, once sacred, but now lespised and trampled on by the slave oligarchy," which cry rang from one end of the free States to the other, and was taken up and shouted back by the enemies [living in the Southern States, of the slave institutions. "Restore the Missouri Compromise, let there be no more slave Territory, no more slave States," became the rallying cry of the Black Republicans and their allies throughout the whole country.

To this cry the great Democratic party, and the national Whigs who united with them, calm-ly responded, "that Congress could exercise no constitutional power over the subject—that the right to have or not to have sirvery, rested alone ith the citizens of the Territory who were immediately interested, and not with those who who had no concern with it."

Upon this great question thus presented, the equality of the States and the right of the people to reguntate their own domestic affairs, subject only to the provisions of the tonstitution of the United States, the great Democratic party and the national Whigs affirming, and the Black Republicans and their alies denying, the great political battle has just been fought—a battle for a great principle, the equal rights of all the citizens of the United States under the Federal constitution, and the equal soverighty of all the LOUISVILLD, Oct. 9, 1856.

DEAR SIR: I have used your Oriental Life Liniment on the horses of the Louisville Express, n several cases with the greatest success. For the cure of Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, &c., it is untivalled and I do not hesitate to say that it is far superior to any Liniment I ever saw. I cheerully recommend it to all as a safe snd reliable Respectfully, JAMES P. OLDHAM.

The Oriental Life Liniment is sold by all the Origgists in Louisviville, Portland, New Albany and Jeffersonville, and the trade generally.

How often do we hear the inquiry made, what can I get to cure this violent cramp I am nightly subject to? I well know the cause to be my too frequent indulgence in eating the vege-tables and fruits of the season, besides taking a dozen or more glasses of water during the day consequently, must pay the penalty. Our advice to such would be always to keep a bottle of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters in the ouse, as it will afford instant relief to any person having Cramps, Spasms, Cholera Morbus, &c.; which are generally the result of over-indulgence in vegetable diet. In fact, when interest is consulted, no family can afford to be without these Bitters They can be had of any of our druggists fore one dollar per bottle, containing a full quart, which will last the season. constitution, and the equal soverignty of all the States, including such as are now in, and those that may hereafter come into the confederacy. And most gloriously have the friends of the constitution triumphed. A great victory has been won—a victory in defence of the Constitution and the Union—a victory over bigotry and sectionalism—over fanaticism and proscription—over Black Republicanism and Abolitionism, and all the other vile ism that have threatened the subversion of the Government. I rejoice with you, my fellow-citizens at this great victory. I rejoice that the contry is safe and the Union preserved; but in the midst of our rejoicings let us not forget that we have other battles to fight—that the enemy is already marshalling his forces and preparing to renew the contest. And let the national men of all parties remember, that DR. 西花, 田松, 田松, FIFTEEN MEDICAL MUMMIES.

The institution called the Medical Faculty, we look upon as a huge mummy, that has been wreceful upon as a huge mummy, that has been wreceful upon as a huge mummy, that has been wreceful upon and hidden from the sight and understand of the world for ages. Its worshippers and advocates are as bigoted in their belief, and as illuberal in their views, as the most fanatical worshippers of false creeds that the world has ever been cursed with. It is our purpose to unfold the mysteries and expose the fallacies which envelop this mummy, so that the people can see for themselves the deformines of the monster which exercises such a powerful influence over the health and lives of the public. We direct the attention of the reader to the following letter from Daivd O. Glisson, a respectable planter in Virginia. Fifteen regular doctors of the Medical Institution could do po good! Reed the letter:

JANUARY, 29th, 1856.

Messes. Radway & Co.: I have been agent at this place, Pattersonville, Scott Co., Va., for all the best pills in use, for nine years, and, in right good fauth, your Regulators give better satisfaction in these mountains of Scott, Va., than all the pills i have sold. Everybody down here, calls your Regulators "The Good Pills," James Tombinson has a son trait had been diseased with the Chronic Rheumatism. Fitteen different physicians have tried to cure him, but could not do it; so he tried, at a venture, Radway's Regulators every night, and in two weeks he was completely cured. I have cured a great many people with your Ready Relief, Regulators and Resolvent, that our best doctors down here could not touch; and I believe that where the doctors down here do make a cure, they do it by the ues of our remedies.

Yours, truly,

DAVID O. GIBSON.

If you want to know when to use the R. R. Remedies, we can only say that when you feel pain use the Relief; when your stomach or bowels, liver or kidneys are out of order, use Radway's Regulators and you will be all right.

LOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.—
A new and revised edition of 350 pages and 180 plates. Price 26 cents a copy. A popular and comprehensive treause on the duties and casualties of single and married life—happy and ruifful allances, mode of securing them—infelictious and infertile ones—their obviation and removal—nervous debility, its causes and cure, by a process at once so simple, safe and effectual, that faithre is impossible—rules for daily management—an essay on rules for daily management—an essay Spermaforrhoea, with practical observations on a safer and more successful mode of treatment—precautionary hints on the evil results from empirical practice; to which is added commentaries on all the diseases of females—from infancy to old age—each case graphically illustrated by beautiful plates. It points out the remedies for those self-inflicted miseries and disappointed hopes so unfortunately prevalent in the young. It is a truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage. Its perusal is particularly recommended to persons entertaining secret doubt of their physical condition, and who are conscious of their physical condition and who are conscious of their physical condition. Dr. LA CROIX, post paid, Albany, New York, enclosing 35 cents.

N. B.—Those who prefer may consult Dr. LA CROIX upon any of the diseases upon which his book: reats, either personally or by mail. His medicines often cure in the short space of six days, and completely and entirely eradicate all traces of those disorders which copaix and cubes having so long been thought an antidote, to the ram of the health of the patient. His "French Secret" is the great continual remedy for that class of disorders which, unfortunately, prysicians treat with mercury, to the irretrievable aestruction of the parient's constitution, and which all the sarsaparifia in the world cannot cure.

PRILADELPHIA, March 16, 1858.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous irritability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and revere pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, ruly wretched. Fortunately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and nervous depressivaled me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. LOUISVIIIe. Ky,
IN calling the attention of dealers in our line in this market, would state that during the last six months our attention has been directed to getting up a large number or new Stove and Grate Patterns, which, added to our already large stock, gives us one of the most extensive and diversified assortments in the western market. Among the number, we would refer to our "ashland Kentuckian". Cook Stove, (three sizes out.) These Stoves have great weight of metal, lighly finished and eigant in appearance. They combine all the modern improvements that practical experience has developed.

We would invite dealers to call and examine for them selves, and we think in quality, price, &c., they can be suited. Having enlarged our manufacturing department, we can promptly met all demands. Thankful for the patronage which has been so kinkly bostowed upon us, we trust, by strict and prompt attention to all orders, to secure a continuance of it. URBAN, Esq.: Dear Sir-We take pleasure in expressing our entire satisfaction in the utility of your Salamander Safes, of which we had two in use atour Liquer and Rectifying e-tablishment, on Sycamore street, at the late severe conflagration. Surrounded by the most combustible material, and remaining for nearly two days in the burning ruins, our suprise was beyond description in finding, after opening said Safes everything in good order. In tendering to you our sincere gratification, we do not hesitate to recommend your Safes to those in want of Such an article, as we know from experience that they truly are what they represent obe, "fire proof." We remain very truly yours.

Cincinnati, Oct., 1863.

I would call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the above letter, handed to me by Messars. W. B. & Co., extensive liquor merchants. It is well known by the Cincinnati public that several of my Safes, of different sizes, have stood, of late, every severe tests. Among others, I would refer to the fire at Mr. Scovill's druggist, that of Messrs. Davie & Co., iron merchants and founders: that of Mr. Shillito, soap and candle factor: that of Messrs. Gireaud & Sarran, liquor and wine merchants. The Sates all came out victorious, although surrounded by the most combustable material.

Having acquired all the late improvements, I dare say that my Sales are inferior to none nade this side the mountains. As to the outer appearance, I combine neatness with durability. Thaskful for past favors, a con inustion of patronage is kindly solicited.
